COP1B Notes

Guidance notes on completing form COP1B Annex B: Supporting information for personal welfare applications

Please read the following notes before completing form COP1B

You must complete and file this form if your application relates to personal welfare matters. This includes applications relating to health matters and applications to appoint a deputy for personal welfare.

You must also complete this form if your application relates to both property and affairs and personal welfare, for example if you are applying for appointment as deputy for property and affairs and personal welfare.

If your application relates to property and affairs only (which includes financial matters), or is about a lasting or enduring power of attorney, you do not need to complete this form. The guidance notes to form COP1 explain what forms you need to complete for the different types of application.

Completing form COP1B

Type of application (Section 1)

Please state what type of application you are seeking to make by ticking one of the boxes in section 1.1.

Please note: Form COP1B must not be used for applications concerning applications under section 21A of the Mental Capacity Act 2005 relating to the deprivation of liberty safeguards (DoLS) or for applications for a court-authorised deprivation of liberty under the streamlined procedure. If you do need to make a deprivation of liberty application, refer to practice direction 10AA, which you can download from the website.

You may need the court's permission to make a personal welfare application. The guidance notes to form COP1 Application form explain when you will need the court's permission to make an application.

Advance decisions and lasting powers of attorney (Section 4)

If the person the application is about has made an advance decision or lasting power of attorney for health and welfare, provide details. Please provide a copy or if you are unable to do so, explain why. If the lasting power of attorney has not been registered, explain why.

There is no need to provide details of an enduring power of attorney or lasting powers of attorney for property and financial affairs.

Declaration of exceptional urgency (Section 6)

Complete this section if your application is extremely urgent and you require the court to consider it immediately. You must state the reasons for the urgency, including the time by which the court should consider the application; and what order you are asking it to make. Where possible you should provide a draft order with the application.

Please note: You should only seek a declaration of exceptional urgency in cases of emergency. If the judge has concerns that the procedure has been abused, he may ask you or your representative to attend the court to explain your reasons in person.

Urgent interim orders/directions (Section 7)

Complete this section if you are asking the court to make a temporary order, or if there is a matter that requires the courts immediate attention.

Order sought (Section 8)

You need to state what order or declaration you are asking the court to make. In each case, the court needs to decide whether the person to whom the application relates is capable of making a decision in the matter to which your application relates.

Please provide specific detail of the type of matter that you have indicated in section 1.1; and what you are asking the court to do. For example if your application relates to residence you may require the court to decide whether person to whom the application relates is capable of deciding where they should live, and to make an order that they move to a particular residence.

What you need to do next

When you have completed this form, you will need to consider what other forms you need to complete. The forms to be completed will be different depending on the type of application. Please refer to the guidance notes on form COP1 for information on what forms to complete and what you need to do next.

When you have completed all the forms you should take, or send them to the Court of Protection, along with any fee. For details on where to send your application check the website: www.gov.uk/court-of-protection
