Osprey can print your cheques onto pre-printed stationery, saving time writing cheques which have already been posted on the system.

You should contact your bank to arrange for pre-printed stationery to be provided. Once you have preprinted stationery or a template copy from your bank, you can set up the system ready to start printing your cheques.

Enable cheque printing

Before you can print cheques, you will need to enable the option on the system. Select Supervisor > System Setup > Configuration Settings.

Enter a description, and select whether you would like your cheque to display as unitary or as a sentence.

e.g. Unitary cheques have the units split so an amount of £2320.25 would look like this:

Thousands	Hundreds	Tens	Units	Pence
2	3	2	0	25
Unitary cheque

Non-unitary cheques have the amount shown in words e.g.

Amount:

Two thousand three hundred and twenty pounds twenty five pence

Non-unitary cheque

Finally, choose the currency and click Save.

Word will open, and you can now create your template to match your stationery. We would recommend using tables for this.

You may insert the relevant merge fields by selecting the Mailings menu and choosing Insert Merge Field to select the field to insert.

When you are finished close and Save the template

Linking your cheque template to the relevant bank(s)

Now that you have designed your Cheque Template you will need to link it to the Bank or Banks that you want to use it for. Navigate to the Supervisor menu, Financial Setup and Banks.
